🏠 CONTRIBUTE TO PAYMENT PAGE

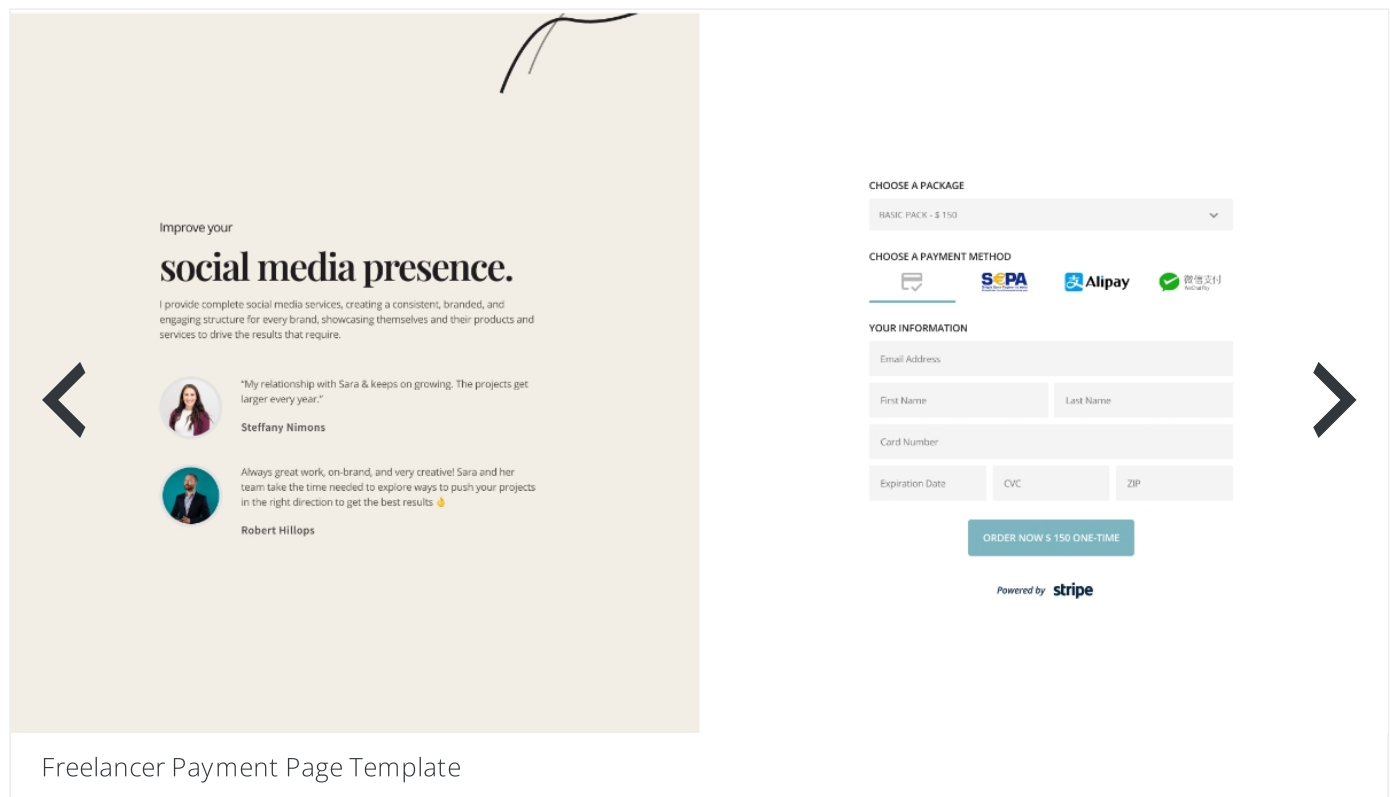

This plugin is proudly open source (GPL license) and we're always looking for more contributors. Whether you know another language, can code like no one's business, or just have an idea, we would love your help and input.

Here's a few ways you can contribute to Payment Page:

- Take a look at the Payment Page GitHub repository to learn more about what issues we're tackling and how the project is developing. If you've never worked with Github before, learn about pull requests here and submit one for Payment Page, we'd love to give you our feedback.
- Translate Payment Page into your native language. The best place to do that is by creating an account on wordpress.org and choosing any of our translation projects. When you've submitted at least 95% of Payment Page's strings, the language moderators will review and approve your translations, and then they will be available to all WordPress users in your native language. If you are interested in translating for our paid plugin, contact us, and we'd be happy to consider chatting about that.
